Novar’s Corunna cracker, revamped to run light feeds, began running nGLs from the Marcellus Shale in Pennsylvania, delivered through the new Genesis Pipeline Extension, in December 2013.

Andor frequency is received from or gate 26, activator circuit 27 will provide a continuous output signal.